INDIGESTION

And Liver Complaint

CURED BY USING

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mr. T. J. CLUNE, of Waltham, S. Australia, writes:

"Six years ago, I had an attack of Indigestion and Liver Complaint that lasted for weeks; I was unable to do any hard work, had no appetite, lost sleep, and my skin was sallow and sleep did not refresh me. I tried several remedies and consulted a doctor without obtaining any relief; finally, one of my customers sent me a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla; it helped me from the first. In fact, after taking six bottles, I was completely cured, and could eat anything and sleep like a child."

NOTICE.

DURING MY ABSENCE

from the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. T. Ahung will act for me in all matters by full power of attorney.

AM TONG,

Attorney-in-fact for T. Ah Kin,

THE LEGISLATURE.

THE SENATE HOLDS ONLY A SHORT SESSION.

The Lower House Elects Five Members of the Council of State

--Other Proceedings.

SEVENTH DAY, JUNE 21.

THE SENATE.

The proceedings in the Senate opened promptly at 10 o'clock this morning. President Wilder in the chair.

After prayer by the chaplain the roll was called and all the members answered to their names.

The minutes of the proceeding meeting were read and approved.

Senator Brown read a petition from a number of sportsmen asking for a change in the game laws and close season. The Senator stated he would hereafter introduce a bill on the subject and the petition was thereupon laid on the table to be considered when the bill comes up.

Senator Baldwin introduced his bill for an electric light franchise for Hilo. Bill read the first time and referred to the Printing Committee.

Senator Brown gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to prevent the wanton destruction of game.

A resolution was adopted that when the Senate adjourn it be to the hour of 10 a. m. on the following day.

A resolution was also adopted that the Secretary procure from the members a list of such daily papers as they require, said papers to be furnished at the expense of the Senate.

The Senate then adjourned to 10 a. m. Saturday.

THE REPRESENTATIVES.

The House of Representatives met at 10 o'clock this morning.

Minister Smith reported for the Minister of the Interior that the questions relating to homestead lands could not be answered immediately, but the data were being collected.

Mr. Davis presented a petition from the Hawaiian Evangelical Association, praying for stringent laws against prostitution. Referred to sanitary committee.

The same member presented a petition from the same body, praying for legislation to control the liquor traffic. Referred to sanitary committee.

Mr. Cluney presented a petition from 65 residents of Honolulu, praying for an appropriation of $2500 for a road from Smith's bridge to Vineyard street. Referred to finance committee.

Mr. Richards presented a petition from residents of Haumanu, Hilo, praying for a road through their lands. Referred to public lands committee.

Mr. Rycroft presented a report of the committee on public lands, recommending amendments to certain sections of the land bill.

Mr. McBryde reported from the finance committee on the two bills making supplementary appropriations, recommending the passage of one of them and cutting up of the other into three bills. Tabled for consideration with the bills.

Mr. Kamaooha presented a report of the committee on rules recommending an amendment to the rules.

Mr. Robertson, against a motion to adopt, said the rules could not be changed without a day's notice, and he moved that the report be laid on the table.

Minister Smith said that a bill could be introduced on a committee's report without a previous notice.

Mr. Robertson answered that this was not a bill and quoted a rule forbidding a change of rules without a day's notice. The amendment was a good one, but they should observe the rules.

The report was laid on the table.

Mr. Kamaooha offered a resolution that the Secretary ask the Minister of the Interior for copies of the laws to be loaned to members for the special and regular sessions, and that those who keep the books should pay for them.

Mr. Robertson would vote for the resolution if the loan was limited to the session. He was afraid that after the hon. mover had pored over his books in the Kohala court house for six months they would be pretty badly used up.

Mr. Kamaooha thought the remarks of the objector were unnecessary.

For his part he did not need to take the books home, as he was well supplied with the laws.

Probably Mr. Robertson was in the same position, but there were other members who needed the books to know what the laws were.

The appropriation bills introduced by the finance committee were read a first time.

Mr. Kamaooha moved that the bill for legislative expenses be made the special order next to the land bill.

Mr. Robertson said one would think Mr. Kamaooha was Minister of Finance, by the way he was trying to force through financial measures.

Mr. Kamaooha retorted that if

Mr. Robertson put up the money for paying printing bills, etc., he

(Mr. K.) would be willing to lay the bill on the table.

The nominations for the Council of State, as reported yesterday, were taken up.

Mr. Richards moved that a unanimous ballot be cast for the nominees.

Mr. Haia nominated Henry

Smith, clerk of the Judiciary

Department.

Minister Damon had great pleasure in seconding the nomination.

He paid a high tribute to Mr. Smith, saying no name in the community commanded more respect.

The ballot resulted as follows:

Mark P. Robinson 15, John Ena

15, D. L. Naone 15, A. G. M.

Robertson 15, G. W. Smith 11,

Henry Smith 4. The first five

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

ESSAYS DELIVERED AT CENTRAL UNION CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

The Building Not Large Enough to Hold the Friends of the Graduates and College.

The seating capacity of Central Union Church was taxed to the utmost last evening on the occasion of the graduating exercises of the class of 1895 of Oahu College. The stage was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers of many kinds. Overhead and extending across the width of the platform was the college motto "Noblesse oblige" in wild jessamine and oleander blossoms.

A few minutes after the time announced the trustees of the college, headed by President Dole, filed in from a side room and took seats in the front of the stage. They were followed by the faculty and teachers of the institution who were seated in the rear of the trustees. President Homer occupied a seat on the stage with the seven graduates. Neat programs were distributed among the audience.

The proceedings commenced
